Dear [REDACTED]

On behalf of the CIA Incentive Awards Committee, I am pleased to notify you of the Committee's action in granting you a cash award of $400 in recognition of your recent superior accomplishment. This is the fourth award for superior accomplishment which has been made in the Agency under the new Government Employees' Incentive Awards Act.

25X1B

This award is based upon your unusual and distinctive contribution to the entire intelligence community in the form of your compilation of the [REDACTED]

The award recognizes your initiative in assuming this task and in performing it on your own time and at no expense to the Government.

I am sure that, apart from this recognition of superior accomplishment, you will derive great satisfaction from having made so effective a contribution to the intelligence community. May I add my personal congratulations.

Very truly yours,

Harrison G. Reynolds
Chairman, Incentive Awards Committee
